

Health Care Reform Efforts Remain Uncertain

By Emily Tonkovich

Congress continues to debate health care and the outlook for this effort remains uncertain.

On Wednesday the Senate started voting on different amendments to the House's health-care bill. If the bill passes with an amendment, it will need to go to a conference committee. The committee would then need to reconcile the House and Senate versions of the bill. Once reconciled, it would go to the President for approval.

There are a variety of political obstacles and at this time the likelihood of a major overhaul of the ACA is unclear.

BRSi will continue to monitor the status of any ACA reform, repeal, or replace efforts and keep clients informed. In the meantime, it is vitally important that clients plan on complying with the ACA.
